EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY:
Crisis Intervention & Advocacy Center
offers competitive salaries and benefits, travel reimbursement, flexible schedule, educational and enrichment opportunities and a work environment that promotes team and independent work. We provide free, confidential, trauma-informed, survivor-centered services for individuals affected by domestic and sexual violence.

We are looking for a passionate, forward-thinking, dependable and energetic team member to carry out this important work in our communities! In an effort to reflect survivors, the agency is committed to building a diverse staff. The center values inclusivity and therefore BIPOC (Black, Indigenous and Persons of Color) and individuals able to speak language(s) in addition to English are strongly encouraged to apply.

The Domestic Abuse Specialist is a full-time position and will be responsible for providing education to civic organizations, religious groups, employees/employers and others on the topics of violence prevention. In addition, the Specialist will provide advocacy; ongoing support; 24 hour-response; medical, legal and personal advocacy; support groups and access to other needed resources in the community to survivors of domestic abuse and their significant others (children and adults).

Crisis Intervention & Advocacy Center serves Adair, Adams, Clarke, Dallas, Decatur, Guthrie, Madison, Ringgold, Taylor and Union counties. This position will be housed in our Winterset office, Madison County.
